Applejack in Lemonade.

Jersey applejack poured into a large milk can containing lemonade at a church festival has caused no end of trouble in the hamlet of Annadale, six miles from Somerville, N. J. After drinking freely of the concoction several young men and women performed strange antics at the festival, which shocked the Just who injected the applejack into the lemonade is a mystery which the church committee in charge of the festival has been trying to solve ever since the affair happened, a week ago. At first there was an attempt to keep it quiet, but the fact that several young women of the community of high moral character performed a skirt dance and did some high kicking on the church lawn, while others became hysterical and ill from the effects of the mixed drink was more than the church committee could stand for, so it has been industriously at work trying to ran down the culprits who doctored the lemonade, and it is reported that several arrests will soon be made that will give the community another shock.
